

On June 2nd, I urge you to retain the current ownership rules. I do not wish to see the information media run by only a few individuals. To insure diverse opinions and perspectives we need to make certain the people in charge of the media are diverse as well.